CULTURAL POLICY

The institution is situated amidst cultural town Marcela. To harness the diverse talent and nurture skills, the institution aims to provide ample opportunities and facilities to bring about holistic development among the rural students.

The cultural policy attempts to mentor and train the students to participate in state, national and international level cultural events to give a broader exposure to their unique talent in music, dance, writing, singing, folk art. The college also hosts a number of competitions on various occasions and an annual interclass cultural festival 'Jubilations'.

Objectives:

- To promote diverse Indian culture, the Goan and local culture in particular.
- To organise various cultural programs, to provide platform to all to showcase their unique talent.
- To ensure equity in participation, just and fair in judgement.
- To extend financial support and mobilise sponsorships to successfully organise academic and non-academic competitions.
- To identify creative talents in music, dance, art theatre, fine arts, folklore amongst the students and groom them by providing facilities and mentoring.
- To develop artistic skills in talented students for enterprising benefits.
- To acknowledge and appreciate the achievements to excel at a higher level.
